REVIEW OF THE FIGHT AND SURRENDER

It "They got theirs. They were approached with money and paid to quit, while we were left in the trenches."

Where the alleged bribe money came from, or how it was offered these men could not explain, but the report they started quickly spread about the streets. It is a story that can never be proven, even if true, but it appears improbable.

Deny Diaz' Report. The report of Diaz that the bull ring was taken last evening at 7 and the whole town occupied at 11 is also denied. Those who were over there before 7 this morning report the town then empty. It is looked from the international line at 6 o'clock and then the federal could be seen coming in.

Ugly Reports Heard. Two Mexican boys this morning told Dr. Armstrong that they had just seen federal soldiers bayonetting wounded insurgents.

A Mexican boy, dirty and with torn clothes, crawled across the line this morning. He told Deputy Sheriff Bob Hulbert he had crept for half a mile to keep out of sight, as he saw a federal bayonet a wounded insurgent. The names of none of the three Mexicans were known to those that they told.

From the roof of the city hall City Clerk Johnson and a party of others looked through a transit. They say that they believe they saw soldiers bayonetting men lying on the ground but none are positively certain.

As no Americans have been permitted to go over the field of battle this cannot be confirmed.
